3.1 Do current and/or anticipated regulatory requirements related to climate change present significant risks to your company?

Yes

Do you want to answer using:

3.2A

What are the current and/or anticipated significant regulatory risks related to climate change and their associated countries/regions and timescales?

Risk	Region/Country	Timescale in Years	Comment
------	----------------	--------------------	---------

3.2B

What are the current and/or anticipated significant regulatory risks related to climate change and their associated countries/regions and timescales?

Current or expected government policy on climate change may have implications for product specific requirements such as Energy Star which has the effect of impacting product design and could potentially lead to more limited sources for product components at a potentially higher cost to Logitech, its suppliers and customers. However, as such product regulations are likely to lead to more energy efficient designs then it is expected that any increase in cost would be offset by the reduced running costs of the revised product design.

3.3

Describe the ways in which the identified risks affect or could affect your business and your value chain.

As per above answer 3.2B

3.4 Are there financial implications associated with the identified risks?

Yes

3.5 Please describe them.

Any future Climate Change regulations may have implications to power utility and transportation suppliers which may result in higher costs to Logitech, its suppliers and customers.

3.6 Describe any actions the company has taken or plans to take to manage or adapt to the risks that have been identified, including the cost of those actions.

3.7 Please explain why you do not consider your company to be exposed to significant regulatory risks - current and/or anticipated.

5.2B

What are the current and/or anticipated other significant risks, and their associated countries/regions and timescales?

5.3 Describe the ways in which the identified risks affect or could affect your business and your value chain.

Heightened consumer awareness and rising energy costs have increased the need to focus on product efficiency and resource reduction.

5.4 Are there financial implications associated with the identified risks?

Yes

5.5

Please describe them.

Logitech is focusing its activities on implementing efficiencies in resource usage by focusing on reducing the amount of packaging material used, bringing efficiencies in freight utilization via packaging weight reduction and improved volume utilization which combine to reduce the amount of fuel used in transportation of goods.

5.6

Describe any actions the company has taken or plans to take to manage or adapt to the other risks that have been identified, including the costs of those actions.

Logitech is also designing more energy efficient products which, in the case of several of our battery powered products, make more use of a single charge and require less recharging per usage which ultimately reduces energy costs for the consumer.

5.7

Explain why you do not consider your company to be exposed to other significant risks - current and/or anticipated.
